*Francisca Correa Aldunate studied Visual Arts at Universidad del Desarrollo (UDD), graduating with distinction (2010). Later she completed a Master-degree in Illustration at the Finis Terrae University (2011), graduating with two votes of distinction. Francisca throughout her career as a visual artist participated in various collective and individual exhibitions, art fairs and other artistic projects in Chile and abroad, and has been published in 3 national and international art books. Collage has been her media work since the beginning of her career, which has been mutating, constantly reinventing her self. Currently, she is working collage with magazines, using diverse themes that she approaches from an illustrative point of view. Francisca is part of a Chilean collage collective "Ensamble" and now she is residing in Toronto, Canada, where she is studying Collage at the Toronto School of Arts.
